Registered Standards Committee Mission

The Registered Standards Committee (RSC) is responsible for establishing, developing, maintaining, and interpreting X12 work products that align with X12's mission and meet the established needs of various industry sectors but are not intended for submission as American National Standards.

Document History

New versions are effective on the approval date.

Effective	Description
03/16/17	Initial version approved by the X12 Board.